

Purpose Statement

Are you struggling in your marriage? Are you feeling hopeless?

There is hope for your marriage. The Married Men's Support Group is a safe place to confidentially share your marital challenges with other men who are facing similar situations. You'll be encouraged and supported by experienced leaders who have been through it and who care.

- Take the focus off your wife and improve yourself instead.
- Get fellowship and comfort from other men who can help you get through this.
- Learn how to respond in difficult situations.
- Learn how to understand her, communicate with her, and love her.

How do you get started healing yourself and your relationship? Join us for honest talk and discover God's plan for you and your marriage. When you change, your marriage changes.
